

Awake, sweet Love

John Dowland, 1597

A - wake, sweet Love! thou art re - turn'd;
A - wake, sweet Love! thou art re - A - wake, sweet Love! thou art re - turn'd; My
A - wake, sweet Love! thou art re - turn'd;

My heart, which long in ab - sence
turn'd; My heart, which long in ab - sence heart, which long in ab - sence
My heart, which long in ab - sence

mourn'd, Lives now in per - fect joy.
mourn'd, Lives now in per - fect joy.
mourn'd, Lives now in per - fect joy.
mourn'd, Lives now in per - fect joy.

On - ly her - self hath seem - ed fair, She on - ly
On - ly her - self, her - self hath seem - ed fair, She
On - ly her - self hath seem - ed fair,
On - ly her - self hath seemed fair, She on - ly

I could love; She on - ly drove on - ly I could love; She on - ly drove She on - ly I could love; She drove
I could love; She on - ly drove

Andante

me to des - pair When she un - kind did prove.
me to des - pair When she un - kind did prove.
me to des - pair When she unkind did prove.
me to des - pair When she un - kind did prove.